

Confession - The Words of My Mouth

Father, I confess that the words of my mouth shall bring forth life. I will not let any corrupt communication proceed from my lips. My mouth shall speak truth and not a lie; for wickedness is an abomination to my lips. All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; and there is nothing perverse in them.

My mouth shall bring forth wisdom. I shall speak what is acceptable and establish truth forever. The words I speak shall preserve me. They are like a tree of life; wholesome and full of lasting fruit. Pleasant are the words of my mouth because they are as a honeycomb, sweet to the soul and health to my bones.
